

Stainless Steel Threshold Channel

Before Installation

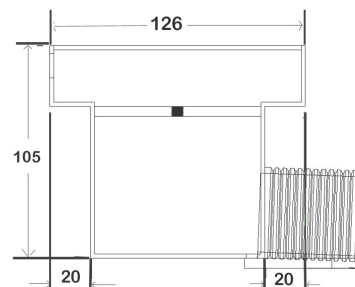

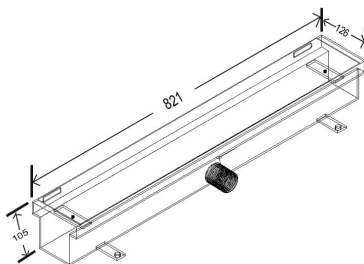

During Installation

Kent Stainless Threshold Channel

- Installation at the time of finishing drainage – when the external path is being set to the front door ensuring
 - Clean, dirt free installation – ground works are complete at installation stage
 - The threshold channel can be installed by ground works contractor
- Complies with part M of Building Regulations 2001
- Stock item ensures quick turnaround time
- Light weight (7kg) ensures easy installation for one person – 25 mins approx.
- Standard fitting for all Munster Joinery doors or alternatively can be tailored to suit patio doors and French doors
- Standard Wavin (1½" BSP) fitting outlet
- Polished finish

Dimensions

After Installation

